charges of complicity in the feud murder of James Cockrill in Jackson, Ky., three years ago, while Senator Alexander Hargis, arrested in the same connection, was released on $15,600 bail.

The decision was announced to-day by Judge Parker of the Fayette Circuit Court, who heard testimony last week on the question of bail and the trial will be held at the present term of court.

All of the men arrested in connection with the crime are prominent in Kentucky business and politics.

James Hargis is still Judge of Breathitt County, and the question arose as to who would act in his stead in the event bail was refused.

Brock Combes of Breathitt, was recently appointed magistrate of that county, and to-day Judge Hargis requested him to hold the term of County Court, which will convene next week.

Henry H. Wagoner Sells Lot No. 1127-29 for $3,450 a Front Foot -To Erect a Building.

A new valuation on Olive street frontage, west of Fleventh street, was estab lished yesterday in the sale of Nos. 1127-9 Olive street by Henry H. Wagoner through the Weisels-Gerhardt Real Estate Company to Charles Parsons, president of the State National Bank, for $198-

The property has a total frontage of 55 feet by a depth of 106 feet along the east line of an alley. The improvements are of small value, consisting of a three-story building at No. 1127 and a two-story structure at No. 1129. The Wagoner Undertaking Company will continue to occupy the outlding at No. 1127 under a lease, and the adjoining building will be replaced in a short time with a modern commercial structure.

Mr. Parson's purchase was made on a valuation of $2.550 a front foot, and shows a big advance in values of Olive street property in the last four years. The $5 feet at No. 1130 was bought by Mr. Wages oner from A. P. Ghio in 1901 for $55,000, while the adjoining 30 feet was purchased in 1857 at about one-half of the selling price a front foot in yesterday's sale.

The property is just east of the identification of the selling price after the northeast corner of Twelfth and Olive $5500 to to which a proposition was recently made for a ninety-nine-year lease on a basis of 4 per cent on a valuation of $5,000 a front foot, or $50,000.

Sixth and Chestnut Leavehold Fold. The Berlin Catering Company, of which John J. Walsh is president, have sold the jeasehold on the two-story building at the northwest corner of Sixth and Chestnut streets to Elizabeth Weckler, a client of George J. Wanstrath, for $18,500. The building has a frontage of 35 feet by a depth of 127 feet, and is arranged in stores and offices, bringing in an annual rental of $10,600.

M. C. Burke Bays Home. Matthew C. Burke has bought for a nome the eleven-room frame residence at No. 5877 Bartner avenue, lot 190x162, from Mrs. Kate C. Swingley for 28,500. The sale was made by John S. Blake and Bro. Real Estate Transfers.

ALBRIGHT BOODLE CASE UP TO-MORROW AT TROY.

Circuit Attorney Sager May Request Special Term Trial for More Time for Preparation.

Either Circuit Attorney Sager or his assistant, George N. Fickeissen, will depart this afternoon for Troy, Mo., to be present to-morrow at the setting of the case of T. Ed Albright, charged with bribery. The airangement suggested is for an agreement on another date or for a special term of the court at Troy.

Circuit Attorney Sager, it is understood, prefers to try the case at a special term, because it will give him more time to prepare for the case.

because it will give him more time to pre-pare for the case.

The Albright case is the one in which he is charged with bribery in connection with the Suburban boodle deal.

He was convicted once on the charge and sentenced to five years in the Pentten-tiary. The Supreme Court reversed and remanded the case.
